Durmus Yilmaz, Governor of Central Bank of Turkey stated in a press conference that the year end inflation forecast for 2008 is up to % 9,3 from previous level of % 6,9. The revision is mainly due to the increases in food prices and movements in electricity prices and FX rates. Reflecting the Bank's pessimistic view, Yilmaz added that % 4 inflation target can be achieved in 2011.

Vakifbank launched Vakif Rail & Miles credit card to be used in intercity railways operated by Turkish Railways. The privileged credit card program is expected to give rise to loan volumes after the initiation of high speed train services between Istanbul and Ankara in 2009, which will be a significant alternative to both airway and highway transportation.
